

Korean American & Asian American Studies Curriculum Conference

A Mini-Conference Promoting Korean American Studies Curriculum and collaboration with other Asian American Studies Curriculum

Saturday • November 19, 2022 • 8:30AM–3:00PM (PST)

UCI Humanities Gateway 1030 & Zoom WEBINAR

Inviting teachers, scholars, educators, and administrators

Registration Required

Parking and lunch will be provided for confirmed in-person attendees

Space is limited so please register early

Presenters

Sohyun An (Professor, Kennesaw State University)
Joseph Jeon (Director of UCI CCKS)
Grace Cho (Professor, CSU Fullerton)
T.C. Kim (President, Korean American Studies Education Foundation)
Jeff Kim (Teacher, Instructional Coach, Anaheim UHSD)
Hera Kwon (Teacher, Sunny Hills High School, Fullerton JUHSD)
Minhye Son (Asst. Professor, CSU Dominguez Hills)
Jane Hong (Assoc. Professor, Occidental College)
Virginia Nguyen (Educator, Portola High School)
Kristyn Son (Teacher, Jefferson Elementary)
Kelly N. Fong (Continuing Lecturer, UCLA)

Special Guests

Youngwan Kim (Korean Consul General)
Dave Min (State Senate)
Tammy Kim (Irvine City Council)

Sponsored by

UCI Center for Critical
Korean Studies

 주로스앤젤레스총영사관
CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA IN LOS ANGELES

Supported by

UCI Teacher Academy UCI History Project

